Attn: Mr. Goodwin

Dear Mr. Goodwin:

As noted earlier, in conversation and subsequent correspondence, I am sending you the first distributed copy of the Supplement to the preliminary draft of my Intelligence and National Security: A Bibliography with Selected Annotations (Cambridge, Mass.: Center for International Affairs, Harvard University, 1967-68), front-matter + pp. 316-838.

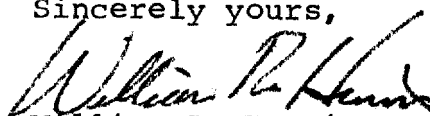

Since all of the material included herein is drawn from unclassified holdings or footnotes, I doubt that you will find the listings themselves a serious problem. When my annotated critique of the literature (the front-matter) is available in revised form, I'll send along the first available copy.

The first shipment, being sent by separate, slower 4th Class/Special Handling mail, contains the Supplement listings of sections 1-7 of my bibliography, pp. 316-365 and pp. 591-643. The remainder will follow when ready.

If additional copies are required, should you wish to circulate this MS to other offices or agencies, I would be willing to provide the necessary copies.

With Season's Greetings and best wishes for the New Year, I am,

Sincerely yours,

William R. Harris

Under separate cover:
Bibliography, Supplement,
316-365; 591-643.
